Eternal Lord,

and made known
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A prayer for the Archbishop of Canterbury

A prayer for the Rt Revd and Rt Hon Dame Sarah Mullally DBE, who becomes the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury in March.

Almighty and everlasting God,
the only worker of great marvels,
send down upon your servant Sarah,
called to be Archbishop of Canterbury and all who are committed to her care,
the spirit of your saving grace,
and that they may truly please you,
pour upon them the continual dew of your blessing.
Grant this, O Lord,
for the honour of our advocate and mediator,
Jesus Christ. Amen.

An invitation from Bishop Flora

A Service of Welcome, at Selby Abbey on the Feast of Candlemas, Sunday 1st February, at 2pm
Archdeacon Liz will preach, and it will be a wonderful opportunity to gather together to celebrate the ministry we share, and our call to Live Christ's Story, on this day when the church remembers the Presentation of Christ in the Temple as a light to the nations.

As ever we are tremendously grateful for the kind hospitality of the Canon John Weetman, the clergy, Church Wardens, PCC and people at Selby Abbey for their kind welcome to worship in this ancient place of faithful prayer and hospitality. It would be helpful to have a sense of how many people to expect, so I would be very grateful if you could respond via the Eventbrite link below, which has been created to give us an approximate attendance for seating and the refreshments that will kindly be provided after the service.

Please respond via the Eventbrite link personally or as a church group. There is no charge for your booking and no need to show any booking details as you attend the service. You are requested to book by Wednesday 28th January.

Please let us know separately of anyone hoping to attend who has access requirements or any other special needs. Please note that no parking will be available at the Abbey, but a number of public car parks are available in Selby town centre.

I know that you will join me in holding Acting Archdeacon Liz and her family in your prayers in this busy season.
