COXWOLD WEBSITE

YOUR VILLAGE! YOUR WEBSITE! MAKE IT WORK TOGETHER!

Did you know that Coxwold has its own website? It's there for you at www.coxwoldvillage.org. Whether you live here or run a business here, or are visiting for a short break or a longer holiday, whatever your connection to Coxwold, there's something on the website for you. Find details of where to stay, local bus timetables, and visit the 'Walks Around Coxwold' section, which will be expanding soon! The pub, garage, tearooms and holiday cottages all have their own pages, so find us on your tablet, phone or computer to discover more about beautiful Coxwold.

The website is for YOU, so make it work for you and the community! Post information and photos, publicise your business, advertise forthcoming events or Church information to reach the wider world. But, the website doesn't work by magic (quite), it needs input from you, villager or visitor! So, please send your contributions to the webmaster (Peter Wyn-Jones webmaster@coxwoldvillage.org), who will conjure them onto the website. If your contribution doesn't seem to fit the categories, send it anyway, and we'll perhaps even make a new page. Constructive suggestions are always welcome.

SHANDY HALL

Shandy Hall and Gardens reopen to visitors from May 1st. We will have an extra shop with books and bric-à-brac in the gallery until our first exhibition (Carry Akroyd) launches in June. Plants for sale as usual! Shandy Hall Gardens open from May to September, Wednesday to Sunday, and Bank Holidays: 11.00am to 4.30pm (£4). Shandy Hall Museum by tour only May to September, Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holidays: 11.30am and 2.30pm (£10). Closed Mondays and Tuesdays, except Bank Holidays. To visit at other times, contact Patrick or Chris on 868465 or info@laurencesternetrust.org.uk.

BARKING DOGS

Polite reminder to dog owners - please try not to leave your four- legged friends home alone. There have been complaints about the noise nuisance caused by dogs in Coxwold. Please could owners keep their pets or working dogs from barking or howling unnecessarily, particularly when they are left outside or home alone. For tips, please see www.bluecross.org.uk/pet-advice/how-to-stop-a-dog-from-barking. Thank you!
