DIARY OF A VICAR'S DAUGHTER AGED 11½

Some of you may have read in The Link parish magazine that the curators at Shandy Hall recently discovered a diary from 1911 by 11½-year-old Ruth, the daughter of Coxwold's then vicar, Rev Ernest Hedger. The diary has some charming illustrations and observations by Ruth of her early life at the vicarage in Coxwold. The curators' hunch that a certain Miss Ruth Hedger mentioned in a newsletter article about Husthwaite Church in the 1950s, '60s and early '70s does indeed refer to the same young diarist! They would love to find out more of what became of the older Ruth, and would be glad to hear from anyone who knows anything about her. Please contact Chris or Patrick at ShandyHallChris@outlook.com or 868465.

Your Hall, Your Playing Field, Your Playground — Can You Help?

Do you want to get involved in community life, meet new people, make friends? Then this is for you. The Coxwold Playing Field Association is a charity serving your village. We need a wide range of volunteers to help maintain and improve your facilities for the benefit of the whole community and all age groups. We need more volunteers NOW!

If you think you might be able to spare a little time, please contact Anne on 868719, 07756 027877 or alegassicke@gmail.com.

The committee relies on volunteers

- To tell us how the hall can better serve the community;
- To coordinate and help carry out maintenance;
- To organise our regular and one-off events, which bring the wider community together and raise funds for the running of the hall.

Volunteer for as much or little as you have time for. Volunteer for things you enjoy or are interested in: from the new sub-committee developing the children's playground, to making tea and sandwiches, from administration to DIY, from decorating the hall for events, to planting spring bulbs on the playing field... We need your skills and energy! We offer friendship and fun!
