UPCOMING EVENTS:

Moonshine Ice Cream Pop-Up Parlour: Sunday 28th September, 10.00am to 4.00pm. Serving waffle cones and sundaes all day, and lots of other tasty treats. Simon and Helen will also be selling a range of products from the Moonshine collective, including olives, nuts and savoury snacks, with lots of samples to indulge in!

Open Gardens 2026 Village Discussion: Thursday 18th September, 7.30pm. Come for a free glass of wine and nibbles to learn about the annual Hidden Gardens of Coxwold event. Have you thought of opening your garden? All gardens, large or tiny, manicured or wild, are welcome! Whether you're a veteran volunteer or a newcomer, bring your ideas for next year's event on Sunday 14th June 2026 and how you'd like to be involved. No commitment necessary!

Village Hall Centenary Celebrations – a Village Discussion: Thursday 30th October, 7.30pm. Did you know that 2026 is the 100th anniversary of the Village Hall, the scene of so many celebrations and events, public and private? We feel a village Centenary Celebration, or more, is needed. Come and share your ideas for events: for children, adults or all. A free glass of wine and nibbles should get the ideas flowing! Peter Pan Panto: CADS will be performing the traditional pantomime Peter Pan in the third week of January. We are always looking to welcome new members, young and old, for all kinds of jobs. No previous theatrical experience required. Please contact Simon Rheinberg for more details on sdrheinberg@hotmail.co.uk.

SHANDY HALL

Glen Baxter Prints and Drawings: Until 14th September, from 1.00pm onwards at the gallery. Born in Leeds in 1944, Glen studied at Leeds College of Art. His distinctive ink and crayon compositions with deadpan captions have earned him a place in major collections, including the Tate and the V&A. His work has also appeared in The New Yorker, Vanity Fair, Elle, and Vogue. This free exhibition offers visitors a chance to enjoy and purchase original works and books.

Museum and gardens open in September, Wednesday to Sunday, 11.00am to 4.30pm, £4 (gardens); tours on Saturdays and Sundays, 11.30am and 2.30pm, £10 (includes gardens). Contact Patrick and Chris on 868465. www.laurencesternetrust.org.uk.
