WELCOME TO COXWOLD

A community website for those working and living in Coxwold, North Yorkshire.

COXWOLD
WEATHER

The new village website (above), www.coxwoldvillage.org, has been live for the past six months now. It works seamlessly on a tablet, smartphone, laptop or standard desktop computer. There's lots to see on the site already: businesses in Coxwold, local accommodation, weather, bus timetables, and lots more besides. You can (soon) check Village Hall bookings and availability, find out about the new Coxwold Village Market, and even see what Coxwold looked like in days gone by. We want the website to promote our lovely village to the world and this means continually updating the website with fresh material. The Webmaster cannot do this alone, so please enjoy the new website and if you have news, views or something of interest to share with the community, let me know: webmaster@coxwoldvillage.org. Everything (within reason) will be considered!

We need your help! After the works at the Village Hall are finished, we will need as many volunteers as possible to clean all that dust away! Any time that you can volunteer would be greatly appreciated – come down when you can, for as long as you can, on Saturday 16th March from 10am onwards.

Free bacon butties, soup, tea/coffee will be served up to all our helpers at 12.30.

We are also looking for people who could volunteer their skills at other times to be arranged: painters, decorators, cleaners, people generally good at organising – if this is you, please let Anne know: 868719. Thank you in advance!

Marathon Fundraiser!

On 22nd March, we will be running the 2019 Palestine Marathon to raise funds for Action around Bethlehem Children with Disability (ABCD). The money will be used to equip and run a new rehabilitation centre for physically, mentally or multi-handicapped children and young persons in the Aroub refugee camp in the West Bank, Palestine. We discovered the centre for rehabilitation of disabled kids in a run-down building. It has no equipment to speak of and desperately needs our help. Reduced UN funding and limited access to medical facilities outside the camp make our task more urgent - also, I am not sure how many more half marathons we can manage: it's not flat in Bethlehem! With your help we can do it - please can you help us even if it's a little as lots of littles make one big push to provide the initial; we need £5,000, hopefully match funded by others, to begin the task.

Please think of or pray for us as we trundle around the sacred spires and daunting watch towers of Bethlehem for this incredible charity. We are really grateful for any help you can give us. Thank you!
